

Confluence Chamber Orchestra

Student Intern Music
Lesson Scholarships

*Devin Allen, Student
Intern Principal Cellist*

Senior adult members of the Confluence Chamber Orchestra have established a fund to provide music lesson scholarships for St. Louis students who are considering professional careers in music.

The student interns enrich the sound of the orchestra and serve as soloists and section leaders, mentored by the adults.

*Albert Einstein,
Amateur Violinist*

The Confluence Chamber Orchestra is uniquely qualified to provide guidance on whether to study to be a performer, teacher, or composer – or to prepare for another field in which the student is also talented. Artistic Director William Bauer teaches, conducts, arranges music, and maintains a busy professional performing schedule. The adult orchestra members, in turn, represent a wide variety of other careers and continue to enjoy playing their instruments as amateurs.

Please consider joining with us by making a tax deductible contribution to our music lesson scholarship fund.
